

Fort Lauderdale Historical Society Founder's Dinner Fundraiser Proves a Great Success

For Immediate Release

Fort Lauderdale, FL, November 5, 2010 - The 2010 Fort Lauderdale Historical Society (FLHS) Founder's Dinner honoring Man of the Centennial H. Wayne Huizenga was held on October 29th at The Ritz-Carlton on Fort Lauderdale Beach. The event was a great success for FLHS making it the most successful fundraiser in FLHS's 48-year history. The evening consisted of live entertainment, dinner and tributes. A special thanks to the over 500 attendees who joined us for the evening to celebrate the accomplishments and many contributions of the honoree H. Wayne Huizenga. FLHS was proud to announce the Man of the Centennial award to Mr. Huizenga for his vision and dedication to our community.

The proceeds will allow FLHS to continue the work and preservation of the 100+ year old buildings and collecting and conservation of Greater Fort Lauderdale's history.

This year's chairman Mike Jackson of AutoNation, Inc and vice chairs Jim O'Connor and Ramon Rodriguez of Republic Services and Wayne Huizenga Jr. of Huizenga Family Foundation are three outstanding leaders, all of whom have contributed endless time and expertise to the community and helped make this a triumphant event.

FLHS First Vice President, Dr. Harry Moon, moved the crowd with his speech about H. Wayne Huizenga and his commitment to philanthropy as well as announcing the new direction of the FLHS and it's soon to be created Huizenga Museum of Business History.

FLHS would like to thank all the Founder's Dinner sponsors and supporters for making the memorable evening possible.
